COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

Dated 1st November 1928.

The following Press Communique issued by the Controller of the Currency, The Treasury, Calcutta, dated 19th October 1928, (received with his letter No. Cy. 2311, dated 19th October 1928) re the issue of hundred-rupee Currency note printed in India at the Nasik Press is published for information of all Treasury Officers and the Public.

B. S. RAGHAVENDRA RAO,
For Comptroller.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

The hundred-rupee Currency note printed in India at the Nasik Press will shortly be issued from the Madras Currency Office, and thereafter from other Currency Offices as the stock of the notes printed in England is exhausted.

2. The general appearance of the note is similar to that of the existing hundred-rupee note. The only difference is that the groundwork of the tablets on which the numbers appear is changed from the brown purple colour to a fine light green pattern in order to allow the numbers to be more easily seen.

The Treasury,
Calcutta, the 19th October 1928.

H. Denning,
Controller of the Currency.
